About Spanish Immersion

The Nuevas Fronteras Spanish Immersion program in the South Washington County School District is a program of choice offered to students who live throughout the District 833 attendance boundaries.

Students in our program are immersed in Spanish as they learn in the curricular areas of reading, writing, math, science, social studies, art, and health.

As with all programs in the South Washington County School district, we are committed to igniting a passion for lifelong learning. Our additional goal for our students is to communicate effectively in Spanish.
